FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

RESPONSES OF THE
NY LMR ASSOCIATION
TO THE WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU'S REQUEST FOR ADMISSION

Daniel T. Kennecke, Executive Officer of NY LMR Association, hereby responds under affirmation to the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau's Request for Admissions of Fact in the above-referenced proceeding

1. Admit
2. Deny. Norcom advanced some funds for the start-up of NY LMR.
3. Deny. See response to No. 2 above.
4. Deny. Norcom advanced funds to the Association for the payment of legal fees.
5. Deny. Norcom has advanced some funds for the payment of legal fees.

Currently, legal fees are paid out of Association revenues.

Nos. 6, 7 - See responses to Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5.

8. Neither Admit it nor Deny it. NY LMR has a number of users that have the right to share the use of the station.

9. Neither Admit nor Deny. The Association was formed for the purpose of providing radio communications service to any eligible user on a non-profit basis. At that time, several companies had expressed interest in becoming users of the planned station.

Items 10 through 21.

Object: Although Respondent admits that Robert Nopper, along with others, participated in the activities described in the statements, Respondent had no way of knowing whether Mr. Nopper participated in his individual capacity or as principal of Norcom.

22. Admit

23. Admit

24. Admit

25. Admit

26. Neither admit nor deny. Do not have sufficient personal knowledge to either admit or deny.

27 & 28 See response to No. 26.

29. Admit

30. Admit

31. Neither admit nor deny. I have no knowledge concerning Norcom's use of accountants, attorneys or engineers.

32. Deny. However, Norcom probably uses some of its office equipment in performing its duties under the management agreement with the Association.

33. See response to No. 32.
34. Have no facts on which to deny or admit. Under the management agreement, Norcom makes the facilities of the Station available to eligible entities for use on a non-profit basis.
35. Admit
36. Deny. Under the management agreement, Norcom makes the facilities of the Station available to eligible users on a non-profit basis. Selling air time on a for profit basis would be in violation of the management agreement.
37. Deny. Norcom conducts the day-to-day operation of the station pursuant to the management agreement and under the overall control of the Association.
38. Deny. Norcom may not use the facilities for its own purposes, except for the purpose of discharging its duties under the management agreement.
39. Deny. Only to the extent appropriate to provide the services required by the management agreement and under the supervision of the Association.
40. Deny
41. Deny. Norcom pays Association expenses as required by the management agreement.
42. Deny. Norcom has paid some of the expenses on behalf of the association pursuant to the management agreement.
43. Deny. There have been no profits from the operation of the Association's Station. Norcom has collected from users the monthly pro-rata charges for the use of the Station.

44. Deny. Norcom has collected user contributions and has applied some of the funds collected toward reimbursing Norcom for funds advanced to the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "D. T. Kennecke", written over a horizontal line.

Daniel T. Kennecke
Executive Officer
NY LMR Association
